Did you know....

The Battle of the Books results are in!

After a month of picture book literacy exploration, Albert Lacombe student's voices have been heard. The ultimate winner of the 16 battling books is....

This humorous book is about a Donkey and a Yam dealing with bad grammar issues. School Council has graciously set aside funds to purchase one copy of the book for each classroom to enjoy.

It was wonderful to see K-6 students gathered in front of the board discussing the books, stating their opinions, and sharing what they had learned during classroom instruction centered around each book. It was truly a winning battle for all involved!
